Collect - 11th Sunday after Trinity (31st August)

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Those in need of our prayers

Please pray for the families of Rosemary Picken, Ann Williams and all who are grieving the loss of loved ones at this time.

Merciful God, be close to all who mourn.
May they know the hope of your promises
and the comfort of your love,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

In our prayers we remember the Church, its members and our community. We pray for those who are unwell, either at home or in hospital and those who are adjusting to changes in their lives. We also remember those who can no longer join us physically in our church buildings for worship or fellowship.

IMPORTANT.....BE AWARE!!!

If you get any emails alleging to be from Clergy or those in positions within the church that ask for money or vouchers or sounding unlikely please ignore! We would never ask for these things. Please check with us via other means and never click the links. There are a lot of phishing emails around currently that we cannot do anything to stop. Please be careful!

A sample of the type of spam email that is being sent is:

"Good to hear from you, here is what I want you to do for me because I'm a little busy right now, conflicting priorities, I'm only available here for now. I have been working on incentives and I aimed at surprising some of our diligent staff with gift cards this week. This should be confidential until they all have the gift cards as it's a surprise. Can you get this done remotely and how soon?"

Please be extra vigilant and don't respond to emails like these!

SAFEGUARDING

For all the churches in our benefice, the safeguarding, safety and security of each person is of the upmost importance. We have across all our churches committed to safeguarding and have adopted the national and diocesan safeguarding policies.

Please do not hesitate to contact one of the coordinators if you have any questions and concerns and understand that everyone has a role to play to ensure we achieve our aim of being a benefice who cares and protects all who visit.

WEBSITE UPDATE

The East Telford Benefice website has recently been experiencing problems and it hasn't been possible to update the information or publish the weekly newsletter link.

Most of the issues have now been ironed out and the website should now see updates over the coming weeks. Each of our churches do use www.achurchnearyou.com where you can access individual church information.

PLACES of WELCOME at HTO, HTWW & St PETERS

This outreach is something which has helped bring our community together and we are always pleased when new people attend. The format is simple – a short service, a shared lunch (soup and roll or sandwiches), chat/board games/puzzles/craft etc.

Please do let your friends and neighbours know about these Places of Welcome especially those who live alone or those who are looking for a place to meet new people. You will find a warm welcome at each of these Places of Welcome. We look forward to meeting you!

Please note St Peters meets at: Priorslee Scout HQ, Snedshill Way, TF2 9QQ

An Alzheimer's Society initiative

Living with dementia at any time brings challenges.

The Alzheimer's Society are working towards a world where dementia no longer devastates lives. They do this by giving help to those living with dementia today, and providing hope for the future.

If you need support and advice, Alzheimer's Society is here for you.

You can call the support line on 0333 150 3456 and find lots more advice and support here:

<https://www.alzheimers.org.uk>

As part of the action plan for our Benefice Churches for Dementia Friendly Church it has been suggested we publish monthly in our newsletters information which offers help in what 'not' to say to someone living with Dementia. We will be using information from the Alzheimers association website.

Things to avoid saying to somebody with dementia

3. Consider whether to remind the person of a death: 'Your brother died 10 years ago'

A person living with dementia may forget about a past bereavement or ask for somebody who has died. Reminding them of a loved one's death can be very painful, and they may react as though hearing the news for the first time all over again.

How to respond to these types of difficult questions will vary for different people in different circumstances, however, it's always important to show sensitivity and minimise any distress.

Try this instead:

For some people, encouraging them to talk about the person they are asking about can be comforting. Distraction techniques can be useful, although try not to avoid the question if they keep asking, as this can cause the person to feel more anxious.

Find out how the person is feeling, sometimes asking about a particular family member or friend is due to the person having an unmet need, such as wanting comfort or reassurance.

EMERGENCY ALERTS TEST

The test will function like a real life Emergency Alert on all 4G and 5G phone networks in the UK. Your mobile or tablet does not have to be connected to mobile data or wifi to get alerts.

Devices will vibrate and make a loud siren sound for roughly 10 seconds. A test message will also appear on screens.

The message will say "This is a test of Emergency Alerts, a UK Government service that will warn you if there is a life-threatening emergency nearby. You do not need to take any action. In a real emergency, follow the instructions in the alert to keep yourself and others safe."

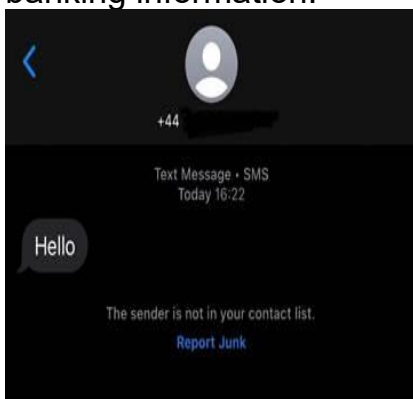

For more info: <https://www.gov.uk/government/news/emergency-alert-test-frequently-asked-questions>

It started with Hello.....

People are used to receiving messages from unknown numbers, but this "Hello" could be the start of a scam.

Any response, from "?????" "Wrong number" or another simple "hello" verifies to the scammer that your phone number is active. From here the scam could go on to impersonate Police or the Bank, inform you owe a parking fine, be the start of a romance fraud, to name just a few of the many, many other ways of manipulating you into giving away sensitive personal or banking information.

And as a bonus if you do reply, expect more text messages from random numbers in the future.

So what should you do?

- Do not reply.
- Do not click on any links.
- Forward the message to 7726 along with the number the text came from.
- Delete and block the number.
- If you have given any personal information report the incident to Action Fraud via their website or by calling 0300 123 2040 and if you have given any financial information inform your bank immediately.

Please share this information with friends and family.

Lichfield Diocese Prayer Diary: Issue 280

We pray for the implementation of our diocesan strategy 'Seeking the Kingdom', within the context of the varied roles and ministries across the Diocese. As 'People of Hope,' we remember those impacted by natural disasters; those in Ukraine suffering grievously and we pray for the people & leaders of Russia; and for a lasting peace for the people of Palestine, Iran, Israel and the wider Middle East.

Sunday 31st August:

(Aidan, Bishop of Lindisfarne, Missionary, 651)

Lord, we lift before you today the two churches in the diocese dedicated to St Aidan; Chads Moor in Rugeley Deanery and Penn Fields in Trysull. We pray for your hand of blessing to rest on both of these churches and each of the communities they serve. We especially pray for Penn Fields as they are currently in vacancy, that at the right time you may place your call upon the right person to serve there.

Monday 1st September:

(Giles of Provence, Hermit, c.710)

Lord, today we lift before you all those churches in the diocese dedicated to St Giles; in Badger, Canwell, Cheadle, Croxden, Haughton, Newcastle, Shrewsbury, Whittington, and Willenhall. We pray for your hand of blessing to rest on all of these churches and all of the places they serve.

Tuesday 2nd:

(The Martyrs of Papua New Guinea, 1901 and 1942)

We pray for Gareth Manser as today he is commissioned to serve as the new vicar of St Peter's Walsall. We pray for good relationships to be built and strengthened with both the congregation present and future, and the surrounding community. Lord, please rest your hand rest upon that part of Walsall. We also pray for wisdom for the Shrewsbury Area Mission and Pastoral Committee as they meet today.

Wednesday 3rd:

(Gregory the Great, Bishop of Rome, Teacher of the Faith, 604)

We lift before you all those children and young people returning to school today or this week, and those going for the first time. Please let welcomes be offered, friendships formed, and fears be allayed. Thank you for the hard work of all those who work and volunteer in schools around the diocese, and also those who serve in the diocese's Education Team.

We also think of the Diocesan and Cathedral Staff as they share fellowship on a staff day today, to build closer and more productive relationships in the future.

Thursday 4th:

(Birinus, Bishop of Dorchester (Oxon), Apostle of Wessex, 650)

Lord, we continue to pray for Newcastle deanery, and today for the churches closest to the town centre. We pray for St George's, its vicar Martin Ball, and all those who serve and worship there. We pray for Josh Penduck, St Giles', and its sister church of St Thomas' Butterson. So too we pray for St Michael's Cross Heath, Fr Simon Maddison, and the church of St Paul's Newcastle as they continue to explore the future.

As we think of St Paul's and their future, we also pray for wisdom for the Wolverhampton Area Mission and Pastoral Committee as they meet today.

Friday 5th:

Our continuing prayers for Newcastle deanery take us to Clayton and the church of St James. We pray for all those who serve that place or are served by it. We especially pray for their vicar Julia Babb, remember her dual role serving as Chaplain at Harplands Hospital, and lift before you all those people serving as healthcare chaplains. We pray too for Holy Trinity in Chesterton, their vicar Jay Rosie, and all those the church encounters.

Saturday 6th:

(Allen Gardiner, Missionary, Founder of the South American Mission Society, 1851)

Lord, we conclude our prayers for Newcastle by lifting before you the churches of All Saints in Madeley and St Margaret's in Betley. We thank you for their pioneering spirit and pray for continuing enthusiasm to think outside the box in trying to help more people to come to know you. We pray for their vicar Tim Watson; their Children, Youth, and Families Minister Ruth Fish; and Pioneers and Young People's Workers around the diocese and beyond.
